Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The proposed development is a high-grade agricultural land farmed for many years contributing to food production. The development proposed is adjacent to the Helen Allison school and will adversely affect this. Longfield Road is extremely narrow with cars parked on each side of the road and is particularly busy and congested at school times Longfield Road is already busy and the development is likely to contribute to this in an adverse way. The speed limit on the Longfield Road is constantly exceeded by car users and present is a risk to children attending the school.

Kind regards
