Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I object most strongly to the above planning application. The land in question is not suitable for use as a site for travellers; Pear Tree Lane is a residential road of many detached properties, the value of which would be severely reduced by such a proposal. Pear Tree Lane is also a busy road and although there is a 30mph speed limit it is regularly ignored by much faster traffic which makes pulling out onto it difficult and dangerous. The See Ho pub is adjacent and parking is difficult when they are busy; extra cars/vans etc would make it more hazardous especially for pedestrians who often use the lane in the summer. Such sites are notorious for anti-social behaviour, rubbish and destruction. Static homes require utilities and '2 touring caravans' sounds suspicious. Let alone a 'day room'. This area is surrounded by green belt land and not suitable for the above plans.
