Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Wrotham road is busy enough with traffic the impact of more housing on the road would be impossible also the area surrounding Meopham has be over developed with no new doctors the schools have all been extended to their max Darenth valley hospital can't cope now with the extra traffic ! This is a village not a town The new lorry park will also impact the road as well as the new Thames crossing the A2 at 5.30am is a car park with slow moving traffic heading to London It's just not going to cope

Kind regards
