Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Meopham cannot cope with approx 700 more cars accessing the A227. This is already a very busy area with a lack of parking for the local shops, also very dangerous exit from the Parade parking. This section is also very busy with parked cars at school drop off and collection times. Green lane is also dangerous with large lorries already mounting the kerbs ruining the grass verges. Pedestrians already have to be aware and move away from the road. This is a large farmland site used for food production and will lead to more imported food.

Kind regards
