Reasons for comment:

Comments: I can see no reason why this cannot be returned to a residential home. I believe the public house was losing money and the landlord and landlady wish to make it their own private home. There are so many public houses that have fallen by the way side and the locals should have made more use of it if they wanted it to remain a public house. Use it or lose it and the odd visit is not sufficient for the current landlord and landlady to make it viable proposition in our changing lifestyles.

Kind regards
