Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This is against greenbelt development. Has previously been evicted and this latest application is mainly retrospective. Having caused extensive damage to the woodland along the road when they moved in buildings without permission. also there is already rubbish in land to the side of the site proposed building up. They have disregard for rules. the work undertaken is changing the local woods, fauna etc. this is over development of excising land and change of use not in line with environment and local plans. object to development and change of use of this site. should be restored back to prior occupation of the land.

Kind regards
