Reasons for comment:

Comments:	We are writing on behalf of the [REDACTED] in support of the planning application reference 20250394, which seeks to convert an existing garage into an annexe ancillary to the main dwelling at Nurstead Lodge, Nurstead Church Lane, Meopham, Gravesend, Kent, DA13 9AD. As a leading authority in annexe planning across the UK, [REDACTED] advocates for the development of annexes that serve as ancillary accommodations to primary residences. Our extensive experience underscores the value these structures bring in promoting multigenerational living and enhancing the flexibility of housing solutions. The proposed conversion aligns with [REDACTED] objectives by providing additional living space that remains intrinsically linked to the main dwelling. It is crucial that the annexe maintains its ancillary status, ensuring it does not function independently from the primary residence, thereby preserving the integrity of the local housing framework. We encourage the council to recognise the benefits of such developments in alleviating pressure on conventional housing and supporting sustainable living arrangements. Further insights into our stance and best practices in annexe planning can be accessed at https://napc.uk/annexe-support/. Thank you for considering our support for this application. We are available to provide further assistance or clarification on matters related to ancillary residential annexes.
