Reasons for comment:
Comments:	They have already started moving chalet type bungalows onto the land when planning hasn't been approved. This shows a complete disregard for the law why should they be allowed to do and keep getting away with it. They come at the dead of night so they know they are breaking the law. They use chainsaws to decimate the woodland causing criminal damage. It is beyond me how they get away with it and then on top of that they may actually be allowed to live there despite balance disregard for the law and local area. The fact they have to cut down trees to get the mobile home surely proves that the area is not suitable

Kind regards
