Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Brown field sites should definitely be used first for housing. The local school, GP and infrastructure is stretched to capacity already. Water services are already problematic. The local country roads would have to be changed beyond recognition, changing the whole character of the village. The A227 is severely congested a lot of the time and getting onto it from the side roads at peak times is already difficult. It would also effectively join Meopham and Sole street together to form a town effectively. Agricultural land would be lost forever. Safety issues on the roads would arise with all the extra traffic on a very busy A227 and surrounding roads would be snarled up when there were issues on the local motorways.

Kind regards
