Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Introducing more traffic to the area will destroy meophams appeal. Many move here to escape the concrete of london and other areas. This much housing will bring more traffic and more and more potential for delays and people being places at risk. This is already an area that gets congested and high demand times. It is also already difficult to navigate with cars parking either side of the road. This will only increase with this plan. Increase in traffic a thus accidents is inevitable. . Demand for resources will go up. We already pay a particularly high council tax as it is. Increasing housing and number of people will also bri g a rise in crime. This is unavoidable. Again one of the draws of this area is hiw safe it is. Another reason people move to Meopham.

Kind regards
