Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I own a home on this road, and I am still years away from being able to remortgage. The parking situation on this road is already near impossible. The additional pressure from 8 additional staff would make it impossible. I am a full time nurse, working long hours in the NHS. I require parking close to my home due a hip condition. This condition is unpredictable, with frequent flare ups. I fear the impact of this development on parking would impact this, to significant detriment of my home life, a home that I work hard to own with my partner.

Kind regards
