

The Society recognises the need to improve the thermal insulation of housing to conserve energy and double glazing is an important element. Listed buildings need to be lived in! In the Society's view, in these circumstances, to improve insulation thin double glazed panels are the best option.

Yours sincerely

A black rectangular box redacting the signature of Mrs T A Lippatt.

Mrs T A Lippatt
Hon. Secretary