I wish to object to planning application number 20251233 for the reasons stated below:

- There are so many other areas nearby that are ugly & could be built on, why build on beautiful green farmland. Once its gone, its gone forever it is disgusting that we ruining our country like this. I appreciate we need housing but build on brownland not green land.
- Istead Rise is already struggling with over population, the pressure on the local Surgery which must be at full capacity already. Also the non-existent bus service means traffic pollution & congestion. When the A2 has problems cars use Istead Rise as a cut through. This will just get worse.
- This plan does not benefit the needs of the local population in any way & will just cause more problems, the schools are already full too. Where do our local children go?
