Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The Bark Park in Higham is a great initiative. It's been well-planned, with each owner being able to book their own slot, and not overlapping. I live just up the road from it. As far as I can see there are no impacts locally at all. No increase in traffic, no increase in littering, and no noise from the dogs. Plus I'm really happy that a local business has started up in such an environmentally sensitive way, that is also sensitive to the neighbourhood. I am not a dog owner but I am also happy this business supports dogs and their owners.

Kind regards
