Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I have viewed the submitted plans for a single storey rear extension to this small semi-detached bungalow. The plans propose a modest sized rear extension with a flat roof structure incorporating two rooflights. I support the application in that it will provide additional living space for a single family. I also welcome the fact that the external brickwork and windows will match the existing building. The rear extension as proposed is reasonable both in terms of size and design. It will provide an additional bedroom and increased kitchen dining area which is needed by the owners.

Kind regards
