Reasons for comment:

Comments:	As a resident on this road for 20 years myself and my family have seen land brought and sold pretty quickly when people realise that land has to be an authorised plot to build on it - everyone who lives in this area has paid additional money for land which was within this criteria. Why these people are even being considered for planning when they have just taken over the land and started laying paths / living on site and then be able to submit for planning is beyond belief. We have worked hard in this area to maintain it as an area of natural beauty and to loose the reputation of being a 'rough' area and in the 20 years we have been here we have had no trouble until you allowed planning down heron hill of another travellers site AFTER they had taken down beautiful woodland and again put in for retrospect planning. Please don't let these travellers 'use' the system as they will keep doing it and this whole area will be totally devalued and loose its natural beauty.
