Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Totally object this.how can they just turn up with no consent put 4 caravans on and damage people's fences in the process.!concreted part of it at Night!with no thought of safety.!they have been aggressive to residents.!chopped down lots of trees.we ourselves are in the process of a extension and have had to jump through hoops to get it but as per usual these people get away with blatantly disregarding any rules .what's more concerning is what they will do next and more land has been cleared with no approval just further up the road is anything being done about this?as I would imagine it is them or other members of them and once that's done where else in our beautiful valley will they acquire against rules and regulations.This needs to be stopped ASAP

Kind regards
