Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I have lived in Culverstone for almost 50 years and seen a lot of changes..The A227 has got really bad. If there is any road closure or traffic lights then there is a gridlock.. The country lanes are far too narrow to be diverted along and it is absolute mayhem. We do have a lot of flooding in Culverstone and i live in Newlands Lane and the water runs from the farm oposite me right down to Whitepost Lane and then down Carters Hill to the Valley and by building 100 houses there it will make it worse.. 100 houses will have at the very least 2 people and 2 cars.. That is adding much more traffic trying to get on to the A227. I use Chapmans Hill a lot and it is really difficult trying to come out on the A227 and even worse when a car is coming out of Heron Hill and you both want to go opposite directions while the traffic is flying along.. It is going to be HORRENDOUS...
