Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I have lived in the Culverstone area since the 1970s and over the years have watched with growing sadness the rural, peaceful charm slowly erode. The increase in traffic and the worsening parking situation, especially right outside our house, have made daily life incredibly frustrating. There have even been times when I couldn't get out of my own driveway - it's infuriating! The A227, which I rely on every single day, has become a nightmare. What used to be a manageable commute now takes at least half an hour longer, and recent diversions through Snodland and via Holly Hill have added up to another hour on top of that. It's exhausting, stressful, and completely unsustainable. I feel deeply disappointed and concerned about what lies ahead. This proposal feels like the final blow to a community that's already under immense pressure. We can only see it as a negative and I am absolutely and wholeheartedly opposed to it.
