Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I oppose this plan as since moving here in 1997 the volume of traffic on the A227 has increased dramatically and with the plan of 100 more houses &amp; occupants with possibly 200-300+ vehicles will add to this, along with the Lower Thames crossing and the other planning proposals through Meopham, Longfield &amp; surrounding areas. Planning has gone mad with an out buildings becoming bungalows, bungalows converted to houses and houses into 3 storey dwellings. Schools have to take on more staff but nowhere to park their vehicles along with the chaotic parking with parents at drop off &amp; collection times during the school terms with the authorities not seeming to care about the locals. We enjoy seeing all the wildlife around but this will be wiped out if the green belt is replaced with a housing estate. We moved from a house in the town and paid a higher price for a house to live in a more rural setting to enjoy a quieter life in the village but if these plans go ahead just down the road and in Meopham too it will be getting more like living in a town again.
