Commenter Type:	Neighbour
Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The Street view plans are misleading and do not show the topography of the land which makes the size of this dwelling and the one next to it look imposing over the smaller bungalows which are adjacent. The property sits in an elevated position of 2m fro the kerbside and not level as in the drawing. Further Singlewell road at this point declines from South to North such that when constructed this property will represent and amount and massing which is out of line with adjacent properties.

Kind regards
