Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Happy for this project to happen. But you must ensure the built in Carrington brewery ceramic pub sign is in corporated into the corner of the new build flats. As was done in West Street with the Russell brewery sign. It's vital that this piece of local street heritage is retained. Other than that build away and wake sure some elements of green tiles are incorporated into the over all design to merge the two distinct styles of build. Hence keeping the Carrington pub sign. Faces south West..

Kind regards
