Reasons for comment:

Comments: I feel that the original planning application once approved has now been added to with additions that would have been rejected and should be rejected now. This property already overlooks [REDACTED] garden and patio area which in the past has always been secluded as all the other surrounding houses are on a similar property line to ours or are shielded by trees. Adding a second level above the garage will give an even greater view of [REDACTED] property and further infringe on our privacy.

Kind regards
