Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This dwelling was never built to be used or converted for multiple occupancy. Not only is it NOT in keeping with the rest of the dwellings on this road, it also compromises the peace and quiet that residents on this road, would reasonably, expect to enjoy. It also creates privacy issues for adjoining properties and adds to an already, difficult parking situation. This is a very busy road and the current road structure cannot support the additional demand that would be placed upon it by the "young professionals" that would be frequenting this HMO. It is totally wrong for the area.

Kind regards
