Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I am writing to express my support for this application. The adjustments made to the original application make no changes to the outer building and have no impact on direct neighbours or other residents in the area. The family have confirmed that the building is for personal family use and not for the use of renting out to other people. They are simply trying to improve their living space and ultimately increase the value of their property for their future. There are many properties in Riverview Park and indeed in Cambria Crescent (including next door and in close proximity to 42 Cambria) that have undergone home improvements and building work that is the same as the request submitted here. I do not see any reason for their application to be declined when others have been approved. It seems many of the objection comments are not based on factual substance but on personal opinions which are not reasons for this application to be rejected.
