Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This is an area of outstanding beauty, unchanged for years, which is already being eroded due to the establishment of the Silverhand Winery and all the traffic this brings with it. The height and scale of the proposed buildings will blot the landscape and cause more disruption through increased heavy vehicles. In this day and age with environment issues predominant this is another nail in the coffin of an area which has been, up to now, a haven for walkers and wildlife. These areas are essential to the health and wellbeing of everybody.

Kind regards
