Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This 130 year old building is part of the area's historical character and heritage. Converting such a long-standing structure into a fast-food outlet would significantly undermine its historic value and the traditional character of the surrounding neighbourhood. Buildings of this age contribute to the identity of the community and should be preserved and used in a way that respects their history and architectural significance. The proposed location is also wholly unsuitable. The building sits within a residential area and directly next to a park, which is used by families, children and local residents seeking a quiet, safe outdoor space. Introducing a high-traffic fast-food restaurant would inevitably increase noise, traffic congestion, litter, and anti-social behaviour, all of which would negatively impact the quality of life for those living nearby. Furthermore, the site is only 0.4 miles from a school. The presence of a major fast-food chain so close to a school raises clear concerns about the promotion o
