Reasons for comment:

Comments: On so many levels it is wrong for this historic former private residence to become a McDonalds. Whether it is eat in or not, it is fast food and customer quick turnaround will result in a constant flow onto this busy residential road which already becomes log jammed. It will also result in constant deliveroo vehicles toing and froing. I can't think that it will be good for a McDonalds to be in such close proximity to a children's park and large school when healthy eating is trying to be achieved with children.

So much of the fabric of this building has been refurbished unsympathetically to the age of the building in the past.

Kind regards
