Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I strongly object to the proposed development as it would erode the rural character and identity of Meopham. This village is valued for its open countryside, farmland, and natural environment. The fields in question are not just visually important, but form part of a living ecosystem supporting wildlife and contributing to the overall character of the area. The presence of skylarks, owls, bats and migratory birds highlights the importance of this land. Once lost, this cannot be recreated. Large-scale development of this nature risks turning a rural village into a suburban extension, fundamentally changing its character and placing further pressure on already stretched local infrastructure.

Kind regards
