Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I object to this lovely area of Kent country side to be built on as these open spaces are becoming less rare and Meopham is a village, not a town. The current surrounding roads and lanes will also suffer as they won't support a large influx of traffic created by the residents, school and local centre users outlined in your plans. It's such a rare and beautiful part of rural Kent and should be left as is. Residents of Meopham didn't buy properties and move into to this area to be surrounded by a busy, blot-on-the-landscape modern estate on their doorstep.

Kind regards
