Reasons for comment:
Comments:	My son goes to St George's school and I know both he and everyone in his school will live in this place it being so close to the place. A McDonald's should not be allowed to be setup so close to a school. This also means that Woodlands Park will inevitably be full of extra rubbish. It will also lead to after hours anti social behaviour as it will be a magnet for after hours. Finally, it will lead to massive traffic problems on an already busy road. It doesn't take much for a drive-tru (due to cars queuing to get in or out into a busy road) to spill into the main road which inevitably leads to issues with the junctions on either side. I believe this is a very short-sighted decision if left go ahead and should not be allowed to proceed.

Kind regards
