Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I strongly object to the siting of a so called 'caravan' at the Stables in Bowesden Lane. Firstly [REDACTED] is NOT the owner/occupier of the land, he has not given a proper address, that the council could write to (Land at Bowesden Lane is not an official address). The caravan is a huge 65' x 22' residential property which will be lived in and not just used for toilet facilities and making tea. As the council must realise from previous applications that have been abused, this will be an open opportunity for numerous caravans/mobile homes etc being sited there. The area is 4.5 acres and will be another White Post Lane Sole Street encampment, were a huge residential close board fence (not allowed) has been put up in a rural area, which the council is still trying to address, costing thousands of pounds. Even if permission is NOT given the council knows that these gypsies/travellers still go ahead and do what they like, look at Pear Tree Lane, no permission given and they have gone ahead and resurfaced at least 84% of the area (according to Shorne Parish council/Dickens society) all ready for more caravans/mobile homes (most probably this bank holiday weekend). Please look at previous situations and realise that when the applicant has lied on the application form he is not likely to adhere to the application to. I strongly object and hope that the council sees sense before another Pear Tree Lane/White Post Lane situation occurs and the poor residents have to wait years and years before anything (or maybe nothing) is done.
