Reasons for comment:

Comments:	Istead Rise is prized for its rural charm, scenic outlooks, and sense of community. Many residents choose to live here precisely because of the open views across the land that surrounds the area such as Rose Farm, development here would harm the very rural identity that attracts families and professionals to the village. This land is considered green belt land and goes against the National Planning Policy Framework preventing the safeguarding of countryside, what special circumstances have been demonstrated to build on this land? Objections were recently overruled not to build on land around Worcester Close, this already increases the strain on public services such as the doctors surgery, dentist and schools, a further housing development of such significance at Rose Farm would further increase the pressure on these services. Acceptance of plans such as these will drive away the community that serve the area.
