Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I write with reference to the following application; 20240856 Former Tollgate Hotel Watling Street Gravesend Kent. Given the historic accounts of the original building to the history of Gravesham, of note the local brewery industry and transportation found in the archives and on the web, there is a lack of detailed information in the application. An inventory of local heritage sites is due to be considered through the adoption of a Local Heritage List. There is scope for the application site and or the original hotel building facade to be considered and included into the Local Heritage List when formally produced. [REDACTED]

Kind regards
