Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I've lived in Meopham all my life and walked up the a227 in the 80s-90s when there was hardly no vehicle on the road and the road was cracking then it's worsening each year with the hgv coming through these developments are turning our village into a town with derelict buildings in Gravesend and dartford which I thought was supposed to be used first your taking out countryside but by bit I strongly object to all these plans as would impact the already impossible doctors surgery waiting the traffic weight the countryside impact would be devastating if I wanted to live in a town I would of
