Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The A227 has become a bypass for the M25 when there is disruption at the Dartford Crossing, that's all day every day and is getting worse. The current volumes of traffic make it very difficult and dangerous to pull on to the road. Adding additional traffic to this already dangerous road would seem ridiculous. There has already been a major accident on this stretch of the A227 involving a bus full of school. The noise pollution is already an issue and will get worse with more traffic. The A227 floods already with water lifting manholes and gratings, adding more properties will significantly impact the drainage on the road and the already leaking sewage network. It is already very hard to see a doctor at Meopham Medical Center, the parking at the local shops in Culverstone and Meopham Parade are full and causing very dangerous parking. None of the local services can cope now. It would seem ridiculous to grant permission for any more properties in the area.

Kind regards
