Commenter Type:	Neighbour
Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This application cannot be lawful as the property was purchased with restrictive covenants restricting the use of the property to residential. Also you cannot run a business from the property. The Fairway is a congested road with insufficient parking available for residents let alone someone attempting to run a residential care home. The fact that this application is even being considered is totally against the rights of all residents in The Fairway. All deeds contain exactly the same restrictions, why would anyone wish to upset a whole road. This application must be purely financial without any consideration for neighbours that have purchased their properties to live in with their families.

Kind regards
