Reasons for comment:

Comments:	This isn't a valid planning application as there is already a High Court Injunction prohibiting any residential use of this land. There are now several caravans on the land and should be removed forthwith to be in compliance with the High Court Injunction. Planning has already been applied for a few years ago which was refused and appealed which was also refused. This is good quality arable land and should be used for farming only. This is also an area of natural beauty which is being ruined by this illegal encampment. White post lane now looks like a wars zone where mature trees and hedgerows have been hacked down. I am given to understand that there is allegedly illegal cesspits dug without any type of percolating system in place. This will allow the waste from these cesspits to enter the water table which is totally unacceptable .
