Comments:

My family and I moved to Harvel a few years ago as we were attracted to the village setting with a pub at the heart of the community. We had attended the pub on a regular basis, prior to our move, in order to meet friends and enjoy a meal. On finally securing a house for a move to the village we were very disappointed to learn that the pub would not be reopening after covid. It seems a very disappointing move by the occupants to not reopen the pub. If they no longer wish to run the pub then it should be offered to someone else to provide that service. The community is very keen to take over the running of the pub and should be offered that opportunity. By changing the status of the building to a private dwelling then the heart of the community has been ripped out to never be replaced. A very sad day for Harvel.

Kind regards
