Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I object to this development for the following reasons. It's in a terrible location down a little country lane where traffic accessing it will struggle from either direction. Meopham is green belt, this should prevent it. If not why does it exist. Meopham is already struggling with it's services. The shops are impossible to access due to parking and it will change the nature of the area to the detriment. The A227 is already being strained every time there's traffic issues on surrounding motorways or the ever present roadworks. It can take half an hour to get through Meopham sometimes. This will get worse when the Thames Crossing opens.

Kind regards
