Reasons for comment:

Comments:	As a resident of the village for over twenty years I object to this application. This encampment is not in keeping with the local residencies. I fear that it will have a very negative impact on our local environment and values of properties as unfortunately historically such camps become an eyesore. There is also a risk of the See-Ho losing trade if the clientele changes. I have had personal experience of this at my former home in [REDACTED] and consequently I may be perceived as prejudiced. However, there was a rise in burglaries in the local area and the local pub had such an influx of antisocial behaviour that locals stopped using it. I would hate to see this happen in Shorne. For many years I have wondered why this plot has not been built on? If it is council owned, surely it would be beneficial to sell the plot and get much needed remuneration for the council budget? Such a plot could have a house built on it that is in keeping with the local homes along Pear Tree Lane.
