Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Totally oppose due: Destruction of green belt 700 plus more cars Traffic congestiom Resultant danger to local residents including school children Loss of wildlife habitat Loss of amenity re walking / running / all thosr who enjoy rural environment Village cannot support increase in population re schools and healthcare Proposed access ay accident black spot Loss of productive agricultural land Visual impat Dangerous opmpact on surrounding lanes Envisaged blocking of A227 - restricted access for emergency vehicles Inadequate local transport Rail setvice does not link to Gravesend Flood risk to area already affected by flash floods Priority instead should be given developing brownfield in Gravesend Meopham is a village not a town Developments will erode village boundaries Lane widths too narrow for access heavy construction vehicles This is not planning - only reaction to developrs greed to usr cheapest sites

Kind regards
