Reasons for comment:

Comments:	As a dog owner who lives locally to the field, I have had the pleasure of using this excellent dog exercise and training field. This is one of a kind in this particular area and an excellent asset to the village community. It's thoughtfully made and looks beautiful, and offers local dog owners and walkers a safe haven to walk dogs that might ordinarily have to walk the streets and fields that perhaps are less suitable for their breed or nature of dog. It's well managed and as I am someone who lives in very close proximity, I can vouch that there's no real increase in footfall or traffic, unless you count one or two lovely, friendly dogs and their owners who have passed by to say how happy they are with the space. So in many ways it's just made more of a connection and community in the village. Long may it last!
