Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I object strongly to this revised application. Firstly, the form has not been completed correctly, land at bowesden lane is NOT an address. [REDACTED] does NOT live at [REDACTED] in Bowesden Lane. This huge mobile home will NOT be used ancillary to the agriculture land, it has two bedrooms, study, kitchen etc which means someone is going to live there or run a business from the stables. The area is huge 4.5 acres which means numerous caravans will arrive and then GBC will have to spend thousands of rate payers money trying to get them off the land. White Post Lane is a fine example, permission given for a caravan for security purposes and what do we have now a huge encampment all boarded out with 6 foot high domestic fencing in a rural area (and that is with a court injunction). These people know how to play the game and GBC should also know, you give permission to site a single caravan 'as it is not unlawful' then once sited the goal posts will change and absolute liberties will be taken. You cannot expect the residents of this lane to continue to pay their council tax, which is very high, and you allow gypsies to do exactly what they want in a lovely area with no respect to anyone. Pear Tree lane another example, refused permission and here we are having a meeting to discuss it, it has been refused but GBC cannot do anything without a meeting to decide. I strongly object to this application.
