Reasons for comment:

Comments: I wish to express my concern that such a huge structure has apparently been allowed to be built directly up against a neighbour's fence. We have very small gardens attached to our bungalows in this road unlike the houses in Newlands Lane that back onto us and therefore we feel very concerned about the noise potential. I understand there is a huge hot tub installed in that building along with a large dining table and patio area etc which can only mean a likely intention of large social gatherings in the future that would cause disturbance to all of us in this road.

Kind regards
