Stance: Customer made comments in support of the Planning Application

Reasons for comment:

Comments: I am a DA12 resident and I fully support the planning application for No. 42. The small shower, toilet, and kitchenette in the outbuilding are practical additions that support its use as a gym and office, particularly while the family is undergoing major house renovations. The intended use of the building has not changed, and it will not be used for sleeping accommodation.

[REDACTED] appear to be based on assumptions rather than fact. The outbuilding at No. 42 is not causing any disruption to neighbours and does not resemble a separate dwelling. I therefore support this application and
