Reasons for comment:
Comments:	For 85.5 Hours a week,we are subjected to shouting and balls being kicked. Balls being kicked,which resonate into your home! I cannot believe this was given permission,in the first place. People that have to wake early for work,cannot have windows open in summer. I can only equate it to,living in a tent,in the middle of a school playground! Do they plan to provide triple glazing and air conditioning?

Kind regards
