Reasons for comment:
Comments:	To add more house is just dangerous the entrance and exit are very difficult to get in and out Adding more traffic to the A227 would be a nightmare It is a run through from each of the motorways M20 M26 A20 to A2 M2 if either of these road have accidents on the whole road a disaster By your own admission some time ago you deemed it should be changed back to a B road. There are parts where two lorry's cannot pass, that is not to mention how many accidents there are and the problem is that the emergency services cannot get through, when the top deck of the bus was damaged and 12 young children had serious injuries it took ages for the services to arrive it was heartbreaking There is not enough doctors to service the community now goodness knows what will happen if these houses are approved

Kind regards
