Reasons for comment:
Comments:	In Meopham we do not need any more house, play parks or changes to the road eg new roundabout. The roads have enough cars on them, the play parks at the Judson green and Camer park is enough. The GP surgeries are over run already. This would spoil and destroy the village feel. It will take away the beautiful fields and green space land which is picturesque and locals enjoy walking regularly with their family and dogs. Not only take away the homes of the local wildlife and birds. This is not necessary and happened in Gravesend where the Lidl was built causing wildlife problems for residents. Leave Meopham as it is.

Kind regards
