Reasons for comment:

Comments:	The A227 at the junction with Longfield Road is already very dangerous with far too many cars speeding along making this junction very dangerous and any future development can only make this worse. The lack of formal parking space in this vicinity is already ludicrous already and any further development can only make this worse. The few shops we have in Meopham are almost inaccessible due to poor parking facilities and any increase will only make matters worse. The closeness to a school will only make things worse, particularly at certain periods when cars are trying to deliver or collect children. This is green belt land which should be honoured and even if development is considered the council must consider safety, parking, particularly near schools or shops as well as proximity to schools, hospitals, doctors surgeries, transport links etc. all of which are currently ludicrous and any development can only make the situation worse
